3	I think there should be school on Saturdays. We should go to school six days a week. But I also think that classes should finish at lunchtime every day. Then, in the afternoon, we should have two hours of study time to review and do homework.
	In addition, by studying at school, we can have time to relax in the evenings. I am sure that this schedule will help us both learn more, and take charge of what we learn. (80 words)
